

WORKING RECOVERY

A Symposium

Call to Action: Next Steps to Carry Us Forward

September 14, 2021

Continuing education credits/hours are approved for:

- Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselors (LADC),
Bureau of Substance Addiction Services
(BSAS)/Massachusetts Department of Public Health
(MA DPH)
- NAADAC, the Association for Addiction Professionals
- The National Association of Social Workers (NASW) - Massachusetts Chapter

Social Sharing

- Use hashtag #workingrecovery2021 to share insights from the symposium on your favorite social platforms
- Follow #workingrecovery2021 on Twitter for live-tweets from your fellow attendees

Erin Allain, M.S.

Senior Program Associate, AHP

978-793-5674

eallain@ahpnet.com

POLICY

PRACTICE

RESEARCH

LIVED EXPERIENCE

Fact	Question?	Aha!	Action

SAMHSA

Substance Use Disorders Recovery with a Focus on Employment and Education

Recovery Research Institute

White & Cloud (2008) Recovery Capital: A Primer for Addictions Professionals

Faces & Voices of Recovery

Health Resources in Action

National Harm Reduction Coalition

DOL's CareerOneStop on American Job Centers

Pathways to Work Evidence Clearinghouse

UMass Amherst's Center for Employment Equity

Advocates for Human Potential

Access to Recovery

THANK YOU!

Stay

TUNED

Contact Us

Erin Allain

978-793-5674

eallain@ahpnet.com

Rebecca Starr

978-261-1424

rstarr@ahpnet.com

For more information about ATR, please visit our website at www.MA-ATR.org